

The Medieval Oath

A solemn pledge and sacred bond made between honorable knights and noble lords. This covenant binds all parties under the ancient laws of chivalry and honor.

Code of Chivalry: All parties shall uphold the sacred Code of Chivalry with honor and virtue in all their deeds.

Loyalty to the Crown: Unwavering loyalty and fealty shall be sworn to the rightful ruler of the realm.

Protection of the Realm: All knights and lords shall defend the kingdom against all threats and dangers.

Justice and Righteousness: Fair judgment and righteous conduct shall guide every action and decision made.

Bond of Brotherhood: A sacred brotherhood is forged between all signatories, transcending all earthly differences.

Preservation of Traditions: Ancient traditions and customs of the realm shall be honored and preserved for future generations.

Courage in Battle: Each party commits to display courage and valor when the call to arms is sounded.

Honor and Integrity: Personal honor and integrity shall remain unblemished throughout all circumstances.

Sir Lancelot

Sir Arthur

Lady Guinevere

Sir Gawain

Sir Bedivere

Merlin the Wise

Morgan le Fay

Sir Kay

Sir Galahad

Sir Mordred